Bill, in preparation for a meeting this afternoon with Martin, we wanted to make sure all involved were clear about roles and responsibilities. If you can, please look this over today or we can modify later, but we did want to get Martin's blessing on this today at 3 pm.

Steve, please look this over and get back to me with your comments/thoughts.

Thanks

Both programs will closely coordinate with community outreach activities and messages on activities in the watershed, sharing information as needed including team members in meetings and activities.
